Kennedy Shot By Assassin In Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — President John F. Kennedy, 46, was shot today by a hidden assassin in a high-speed car.

Kennedy, 46, lived about 30 minutes after a sniper cut him down as he limousine left downtown Dallas.

Automatically, the mantle of the presidency fell to Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, a native Texan who had been riding two cars behind the chief executive.

Kennedy died at Parkland Memorial, where a bullet-pierced body had been taken in a hearse but not a coffin to save his life.

Lying wounded at the scene, Kennedy was taken to Parkland Memorial, where he died at 7:05 a.m. He was shot in the back of the head by a sniper who was seen by the press as the president's motorcade passed by the Texas School Depository building.

Comely and his wife had been riding with the President and Mrs. Kennedy.

The first lady reacted to the shooting by screaming and holding her husband's hand.

She was taken to the hospital where she died at 7:05 a.m. She was shot in the back of the head by a sniper who was seen by the press as the president's motorcade passed by the Texas School Depository building.

JFK Began Career In House

From World Bank
DALLAS (AP) — President John F. Kennedy began his political career in the U.S. House of Representatives.

He served in the House from 1947 to 1949, representing the 11th Congressional District of Massachusetts.

During his time in the House, Kennedy was known for his leadership and his commitment to public service.

He was re-elected to the House in 1948, but chose to leave to join the U.S. Navy during World War II.

His military service was distinguished, and he was awarded several medals for his bravery.

After the war, Kennedy returned to the House and continued his work as a legislator.

His time in the House laid the foundation for his later career in public service.

He was a member of the House Select Committee on Assassinations.

His work in the House was a testament to his dedication to the American people.

He was a true leader and a man of integrity.

His legacy lives on in the hearts of the American people.

He was a true American hero.

Harrisonburg Is Shocked And Grieved By JFK Assassination

Harrisonburg, Va. (AP) — The news of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was met with shock and grief in Harrisonburg, Va.

Many residents expressed their sorrow and disbelief at the loss of the young president.

Local churches and community centers held services to mourn the president's death.

People gathered in front of the town hall to pay tribute to the fallen leader.

The Harrisonburg community is united in its grief and its desire for justice.

They hope that the truth will be revealed and that the nation will heal.

ANNE C. SCHLEY A BRIDE TODAY

She Will Be Wed to John R. Webb at Her Parents' Home in Far Hills, N. J.

FIANCE A POLO PLAYER

She Is Also a Whip of Essex Fox Hounds—Couple to Hunt Big Game in West.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B. Schley of Kenellyn, Far Hills, N. J., yesterday announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Anne Caroline Schley, to John Richard Webb of Fort Davis, Texas. The marriage will take place this afternoon at the Schley home with only members of the two families and a few close friends present at the ceremony to be performed by the Rev. James H. S. Fair, headmaster of the Somerset Hills Preparatory School, Far Hills. Both Miss Schley and Mr. Webb will dispense with attendants. Shortly after the ceremony they will start on a motor trip to Texas, spending the Spring in big game hunting. They plan to spend the Summer in the West, and return to Far Hills next Autumn.

Miss Schley attended Fermata School in Allen, S. C., and while there rode in the hunts and took part in the ladies' polo matches. Following her graduation Miss Schley became one of the whips of the Essex Fox Hounds, and also took part in the ladies' polo matches in Rumson, N. J., and the surrounding country. She was introduced to society by her parents at a dance at their home in September, 1931.

Mr. Webb, who is an accomplished horseman, spent his youth on a farm owned by his uncle in West Texas. It was there that he acquired his knowledge of horses, and spent much of his time in breaking and schooling hunters and polo ponies.

P. M. CHANCELLOR TO WED ELZA TENNAIR

American Heir to $6,000,000
Will Marry Vienna Girl on Saturday.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., March 1 (AP).—Phillip Mattiasen Chancellor, heir to millions, will marry Miss Elza Tennair of Vienna and Berlin on Saturday at St. George's Chapel, London. Dr. and Mrs. Phillip S. Chancellor of Montecito, parents of the bride-to-be, announced here today. They said the engagement was revealed to them by their son on a visit here at Christmas and they approved.

A former marriage of Mr. Chancellor was annulled. He eloped to Carson City, Nev., in 1927 with Helen Carroll Baines of Philadelphia, before his twentieth birthday. Dr. Chancellor, who is a retired physician, voluntarily established a $125,000 trust fund for Miss Baines at the time of the annulment and paid the attorneys' fees.

San Francisco records show the girl's mother, Mrs. Annie Tallent Baines Townsend, wife of a former vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, brought the suit for annulment, which was dismissed in her favor.

MISS WILDE'S BRIDAL

She Will Be Wed to Lieut. Edward W. Rawlins, U. S. N., March 13.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Hunter Wilde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James De Witt Wilde, to Lieutenant Edward White Rawlins, U. S. N., will take place on March 13. It will be a small wedding with none but members of the two families present at the ceremony to be performed at the home of Miss Wilde's parents, 487 Berkeley Avenue, South Orange, N. J.

The date of the wedding has been advanced, owing to the fact that Lieutenant Rawlins has been granted a week's leave of absence at that time.

Morehouse—Spence.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

BRONXVILLE, N. Y., March 1.—Miss Kathleen Forbes Morehouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Chichester Morehouse of Bronxville Road, has chosen March 18 for her wedding to Thomas Everard Spence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Spence of Portadown, North Ireland.

The wedding will take place at the Winter home of the prospective bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Platt Brett in Coconut Grove, Florida.

Miss Morehouse has selected as her matron of honor Mrs. James F. Brett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Platt Brett.

PRINCETON ELECTS TO PHI BETA KAPPA

Addition of 27 Seniors and 9 Juniors Brings Chapter Membership to 42.

BILLINGS AGAIN HONORED

Winner of Pyne Prize and Rhodes Scholarship Joins Society—Eating Clubs Add 44 Students.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 1.—Twenty-seven members of the senior class and nine juniors were elected to the Phi Beta Kappa Society at the meeting of the Princeton chapter here this afternoon. As six members of the class of 1933 were elected to the society last year, the total number of seniors admitted to membership is now thirty-three. Additional members will be chosen in June.

Among the students elected today is Frederic Tremaine Billings Jr. of Pittsburgh, captain of the 1932 football team, chairman of the undergraduate council, recipient of the M. Taylor Pyne Honor Prize, the highest general distinction conferred by Princeton University upon an undergraduate, and recent winner of a Rhodes scholarship. Others on the list are:

- Seniors.
- EDWARD WOOD LANE JR. of Jacksonville, Fla.—Former chairman of The Daily Princetonian and secretary of the undergraduate council.
- ROBERT EDWARD NAIL JR. of Albany, Texas—Former editor of The Nassau Literary Magazine, former member of The Princetonian Board and writer of original plays produced by the Theatre Intime.
- HENRY LANGENBERG MCINTIRE of St. Louis, Mo.—Secretary of the Sports Managers Club.
- ROBERT STEPHEN PARLEY JR. of Maplewood, N. J.—Former circulation manager of The Princetonian.
- ALFRED STRUCK JR. of Louisville, Ky.—Leader of the Ole Club.
- LANE TAYLOR of Philadelphia—Varsity soccer player and member of the 1933 promenade committee and of The Tiger board.
- OSCAR MENNEN WILLIAMS of Ames, Iowa—Varsity swimmer.
- EDWARD M. GARTH of New York—Winner of the Princeton prize in the New York Times current events contest in 1932 and 1933.
- GEORGE WARREN JAMES of Boston.

Toast to the King Is Omitted On Demand of Emma Goldman

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, March 1.—The traditional toast to the King was omitted at a luncheon at the fashionable Grosvenor House today to spare the feelings of the noted anarchist, Emma Goldman. Miss Goldman threatened to leave if the toast were given.

The occasion was a literary luncheon in honor of Miss Goldman, to whom tributes were paid by Henry W. Nevinson, distinguished journalist; Rebecca West, novelist, and Paul Robeson.

Mr. Robeson sang two Negro spirituals, "Sometimes I Feel Like a Mournin' Dove" and "Roll de Chariot Along," as expressive of Miss Goldman's philosophy of life.

SWARTHMORE WOMEN VOTE OUT SORORITIES

Action Is Taken by Association, Though 75 Per Cent Are Members.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

SWARTHMORE, Pa., March 1.—Abolition next fall of sororities, known at Swarthmore College as "women's fraternities," was voted by the Women's Student Government Association tonight. In secret ballots, 160 girls voted to abolish the sororities, 108 favored retaining them and 6 were undecided.

The action was taken despite the fact that 75 per cent of the women students are members of the sororities. It followed a campaign for abolition headed by Miss Molly Yard of Evanston, Ill., a member of the Pan-Hellenic Council and chairman of the social committee of the association.

Tonight's decision came nearly a year after a previous decision to curtail activities of the sororities for 1932-33 and to work out a plan for the participation of all women in campus social affairs. It followed long-standing complaints that social activities among women students were limited entirely to sorority meetings.

The seven sorority chapters wiped out by the vote are Kappa Alpha Beta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Beta Phi, Delta Gamma, Chi Omega, Phi Mu and Delta Zeta. The Swarthmore members have not lived in chapter houses, however.

smoke in a designated area if they had a smoking permit, which included parental approval. Now, no one is permitted to smoke at any time or place. Mr. Gresham feels that allowing students to smoke at school is indirectly putting the school's stamp of approval on smoking in general. The teachers voted unanimously to abolish smoking, and many parents and students agree with this action.

Mr. Gresham has many goals for B.H.S. He first of all, wants to "continue the student and community pride of traditions, and strengthen the academic and vocational curriculum." He also wants to provide as many of the programs that the community suggests as possible.

A third goal is to put more emphasis on the accomplishments of the

The Staff. Broadway High's policies under Mr. Gresham's leadership. The first has to do with the location of

The students of Broadway High School are becoming accustomed to new faces. New students and new faculty may come to the school without even being noticed by everyone. There is, however, one person whom everyone will become acquainted with sooner or later, the new principal, Mr. James Gresham.

TRUMAN HASTENS TO CALL MOTHER

Special Events

By BERTHOLD H. WALLEN
Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20—An estimated six million and a half people gathered in the nation's capital today for the inauguration of President Harry S. Truman. The ceremony, which began at 10:30 A. M., was the largest in the history of the city. The President, wearing a dark suit and tie, was seen walking down the steps of the White House. He was surrounded by a large crowd of people, many of whom were wearing hats and coats. The President's car, a dark sedan, was seen driving through the city streets. The car was surrounded by a large crowd of people, many of whom were waving and shouting. The President's car was seen driving through the city streets. SHENANDOAH MAKES THE FIRE GRATE THAT MAKES THE FIRE GREAT.

The average fireplace wastes ninety percent of its energy because the heat goes up the chimney instead of into the room. With the Shenandoah Fire Grate, three times as much heat is saved, so your fuel dollar goes three times as far. And can it take the heat! Shenandoah builds it tough to last longer and work better.

MONDAY

AT SAKS — FIFTH AVENUE
A Very Unusual

Sale of 6000 Men's Shirts

Customary Valuations up to 4.00

Special, 2.00

The moment you see these shirts you'll want a lot of them — they have that indefinable something which is part of all men's furnishings featured by Saks — Fifth Avenue. There is distinction in the patterns, and the colorings were selected with due regard to suit shades for Spring, great care is reflected in the finished details, and the outstanding quality of the materials at once inspires confidence . . .

London is having a run on Guard stripings in shirts — they are here in profusion! There are novelty effects, too, solid colors and white — in fact a collection so complete in every detail that only a matter of seconds will be necessary to satisfy your preference. You'll like them and we'll get a lot of satisfaction in knowing every shirt you select to be really extraordinary value. Thank you!

A Rogue's Gallery

"Ain't he sweet?"

Sampson's not the only net stuffer.

"Take me out to the ball game . . ."

Eddie Evans takes his custodial duties seriously.

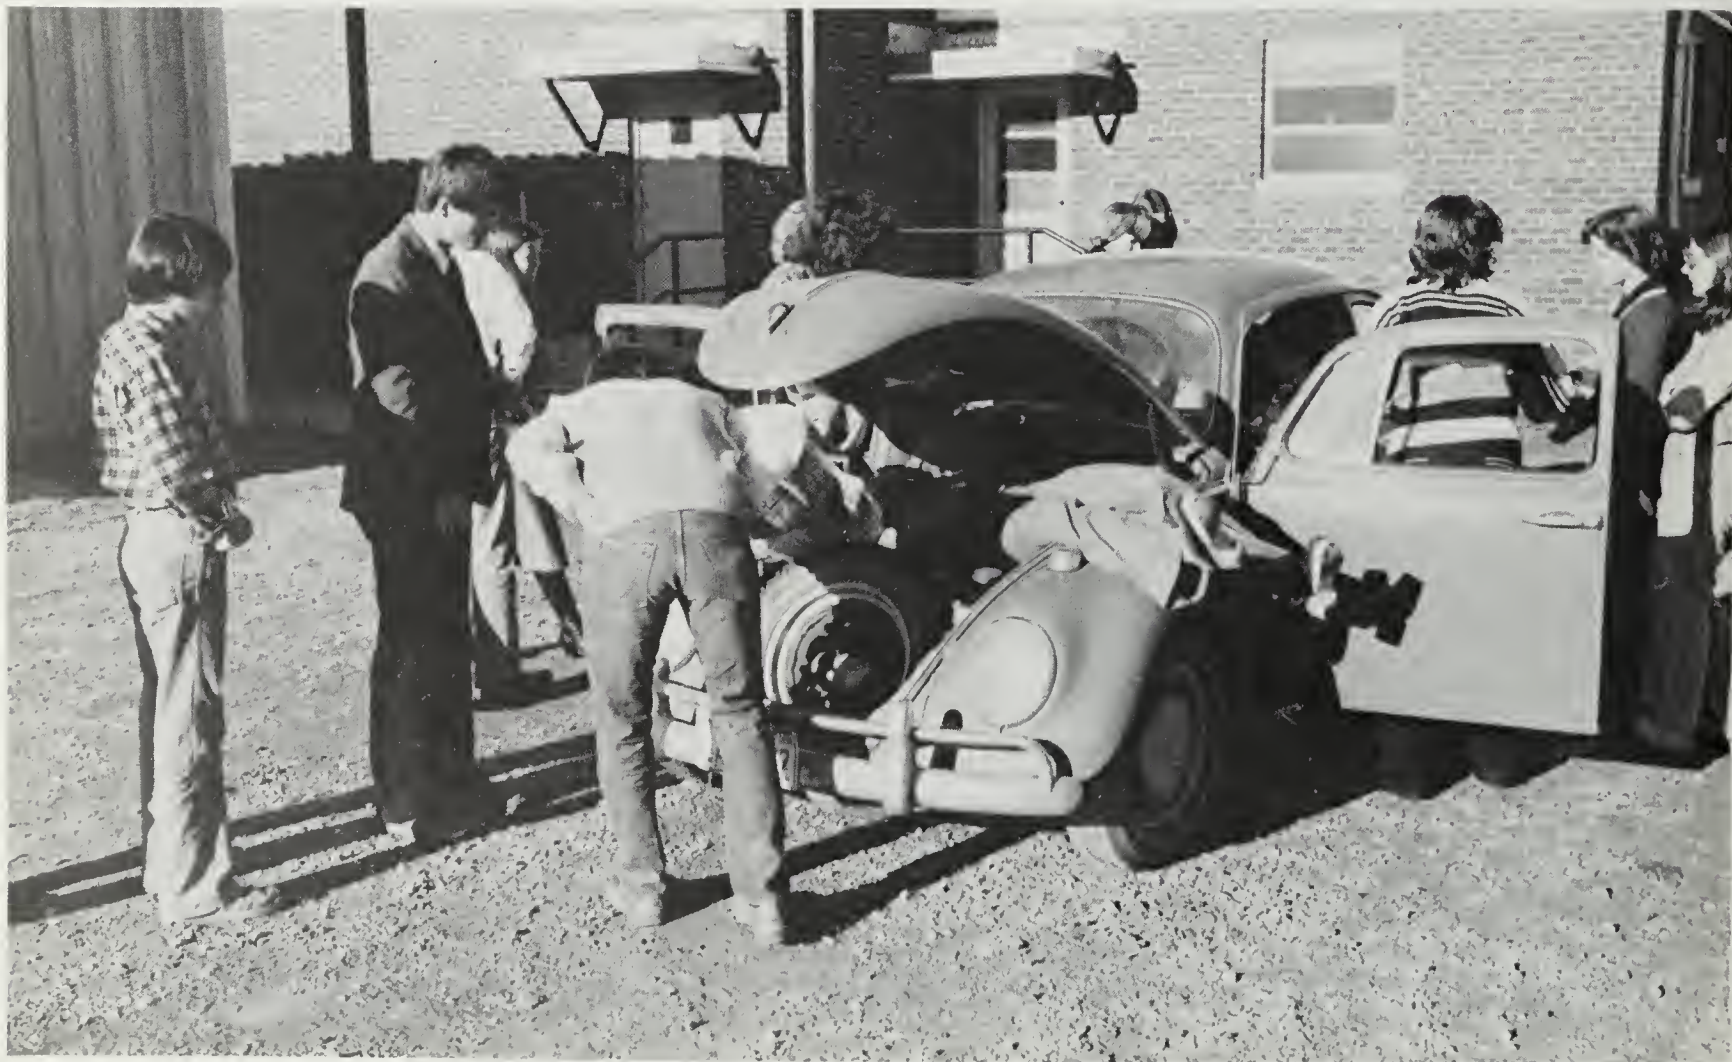

What do you mean, "fails"?

Where is that photographer?

Did someone say "Smile"?

Well, there was a shortage of buses . . .

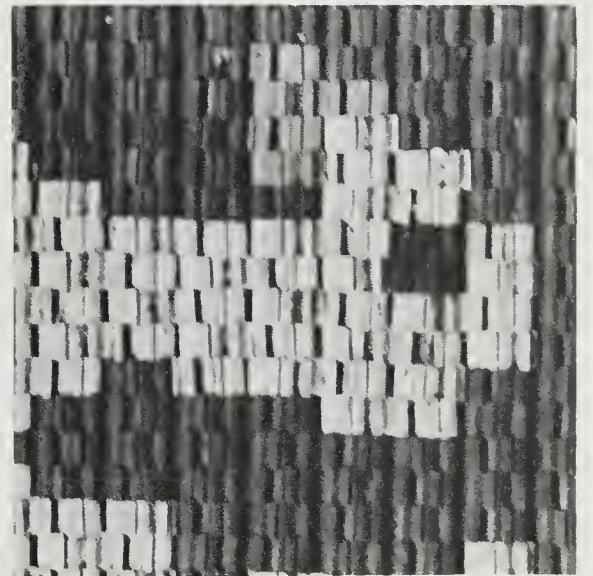

What's biting my leg????

You were doing this last year, Mike.

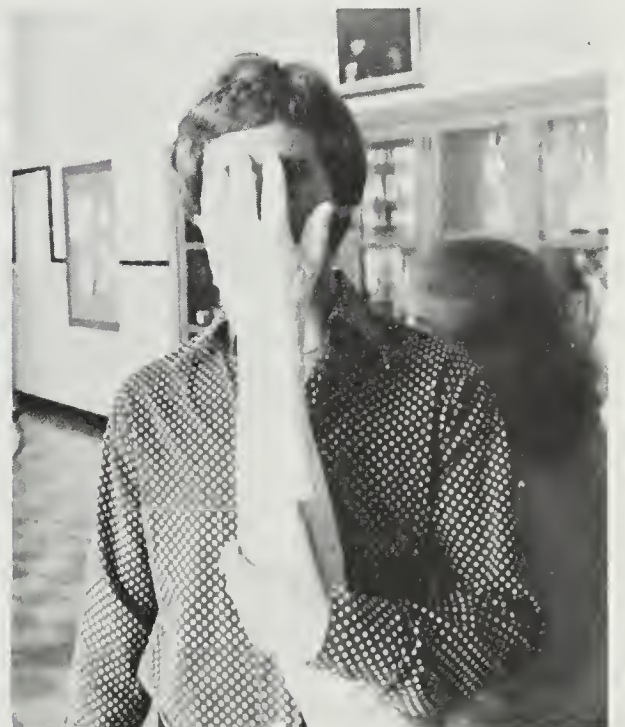

How am I going to explain this one?

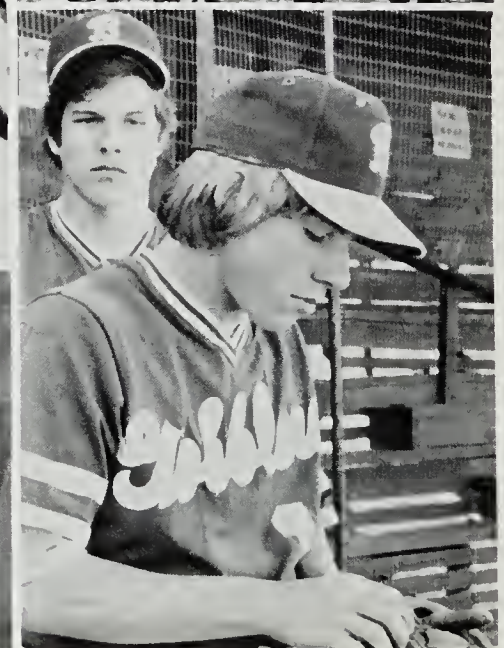

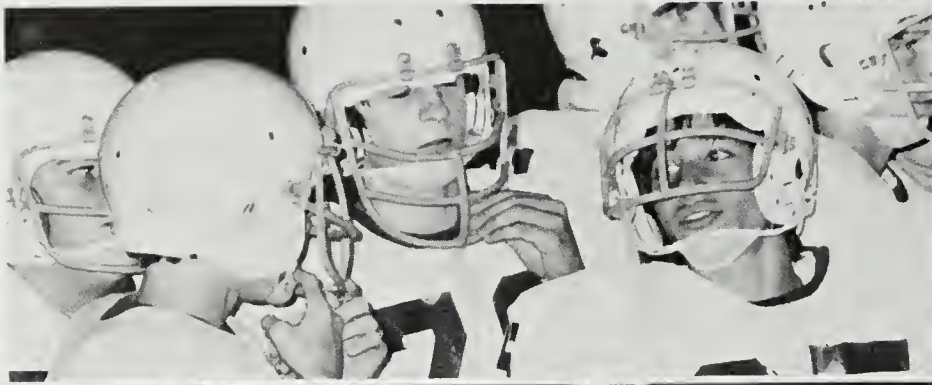

Don't tread on me.

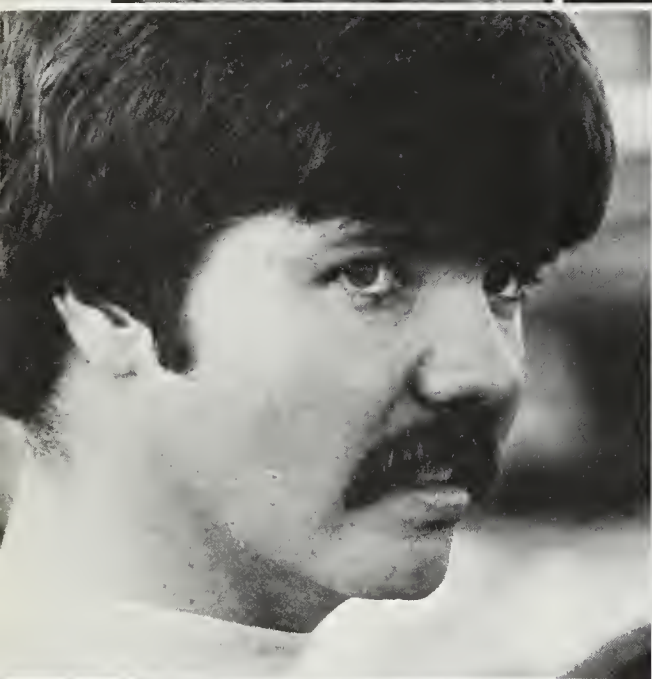

All together now: one-two-three!

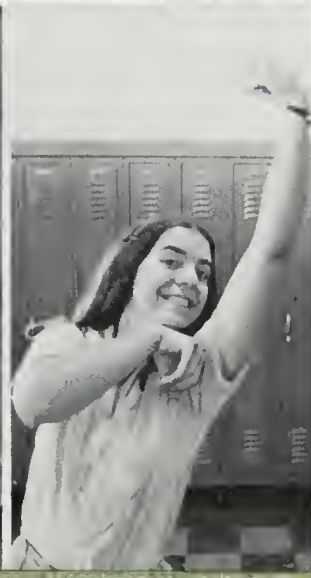

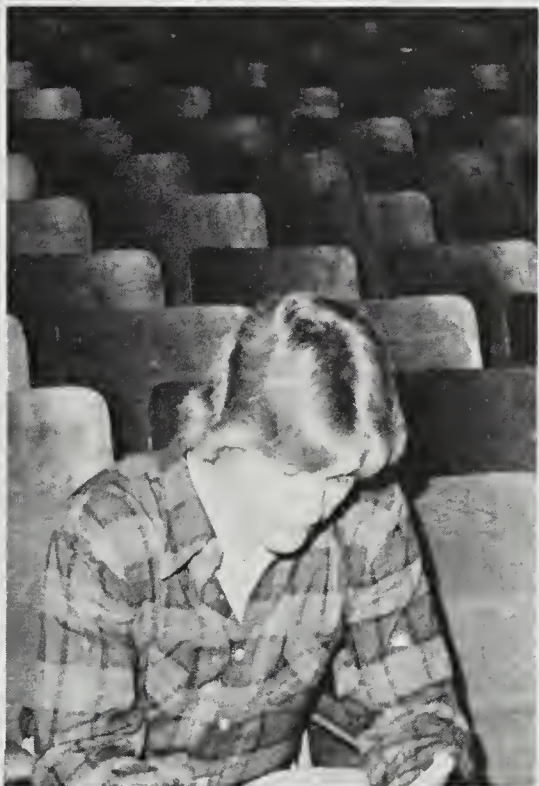

The long arm of Fate has finally caught up with me.

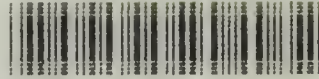

Tomorrow today will be yesterday.

Around the corner of yesterday . . .
